STARS OF THE WEEK:

15th September 2023

Bees : Emmy: We cannot believe just how beautifully Emmy has settled into Bee class. At first, Emmy was a little emotional coming into school but now she comes in with a big, beautiful smile and she is always the child setting an example for others on the carpet. What an absolute super star –we are so proud.

Butterflies. Ria: We have been so impressed with how you have settled into being a full time butterfly. We love how your smiles and laughter light up the classroom. You love being around your friends and are responding to your name and looking at all your familiar adults when we are talking. Keep on being a superstar Ria.

Squirrels. Nothando: We have been super impressed with how well Nothando has settled into her new class. She has been working really hard and followed the classroom routines well. What a great start!

Frogs. Jasmine: for working hard, being resilient and settling into frogs class wonderfully. Jasmine has been giving everything her best try. She has been making sure she has completed her busy jobs as well as all her work, well done on a great first couple of weeks!

Mice. Jack: Jack can be a little nervous about coming into school. but he shows great determination and always comes in. He always sets a great example to the class with his behaviour and attitude to work. Thank you, Jack, for being brave and stepping through the class door.

Hedgehogs. Cleo: Cleo has had a wonderful first week in Hedgehog class, she comes in each morning and straight away does her helpful responsible job. She has been raising her hand, joining in and showing just how brave she can be.

Moles. Darcie: Darcie has settled into Year 3 so well, she is constantly contributing to lessons, trying her best at everything and setting a wonderful example to other on how to behave in the classroom. Darcie has been a fantastic friend and been very helpful to everybody. Well done, Darcie!

Rabbits. Amber: Amber has made an excellent start of the year in Rabbits class. She always follows the rules, does the right thing and her participation in class is superb! She is always helping others and being kind. Thank you, Amber!

"Together, we will make a difference."

Badgers. Bailey: Bailey has had an excellent week this week. He has followed our class expectations wonderfully and shown himself to be an excellent role model to others. He has also been focusing brilliantly in the classroom and putting lots of effort into his learning.

Foxes. Erin: What an amazing start to year 4. Erin has a superb attitude, follows our class rules and works so hard. She is a super star in every way. We are so pleased to have you in foxes class!

Kingfishers. Jessica: Jessica has demonstrated an exceptional attitude as she's settled into her new Year 5 class. She is incredibly resilient and constantly showcases her 'can do' attitude in all aspects of her learning. With increasing independence, Jessica actively looks for strategies to help her solve problems. Well done Jess!

Owls. Oscar. Oscar: Oscar has made a fantastic start in Owls class. He has listened carefully to instructions and shown he can be very independent in all subjects. His work has impressed all the year 5 team! Well done, Oscar!

Kestrels. Ben: Ben has made a great start to the year. He has shown an extremely positive attitude to all his work and has proved himself to be enthusiastic well-manned and a great listener. Keep up the great work Ben!

Sparrow Hawks. Kaili: Kaili has made a great start to her new class and school. She is kind, polite, hardworking and has already made some new friends. We are so lucky to have her in Year 6!
