STARS OF THE WEEK:

19th April 2024

Bees. Ivy: Ivy is one of our always children. She is always ready, always listening and always sitting beautifully. She is kind and caring and a good friend to all children in our class. However, this week she has blown us away by using her Easter holiday to learn sign language! She can sign the alphabet, colours and some phrases like 'Good Morning'. Well done Ivy you super star!

Butterflies. Boris: Boris has had a fantastic week and is always focussed, answering questions and will always apply his knowledge in both child initiated and focussed activities. Boris continue to be a shining butterfly who impresses us everyday. Well done.

Squirrels. Gracie: Gracie has had a wonderful week. She has been full of ideas for our writing, shown a really good understanding of the seasons and been showing us her wonderful progress in reading and phonics. She was also really brave when she took part in Reading Buddies for the first time and read to one of our wonderful Year 5 pupils. Well done, Gracie.

Frogs. Nelson: For settling back into school seamlessly this week. Nelson has been working hard all week and has been describing where a dragon may live. Well done, Nelson on an excellent first week back, keep up the good work!

Mice. Cindy: Cindy has continued to make great progress in reading and has impressed both me and Mrs Fraser with her skills. Cindy confidently read out a variety of brand new tricky words and sentences. Well done, Cindy.

Hedgehogs. Pipar: Pipar is consistently doing the right thing, always ready to learn and sets a great example for the rest of the class. Her positive attitude shines! Well done, Pipar!

Moles. Ollie: Ollie has had a fantastic week and has consistently worked hard! In English where he has made some fantastic speech sentences. In Maths he has tackled fractions with confidence and even helped other children. Good work, Ollie!

Rabbits. Hugo B: Hugo has shone out this week in all areas! His excellent behaviour, manners and politeness has set a superb example for the rest of the class. He has been given the responsibility as line monitor and is consistently making the right choices. Well done, Hugo!

"Together, we will make a difference."

Badgers. Grace: Grace has returned to and has been re brilliant attitude to working and has been really focused on her working. She is working well with others, and is following instructions in the classroom really well. Well done Grace.

Foxes. Charlie C. Charlie is always so positive in his attitude and approach to learning. He works hard and is always reflective on what he has done well and how he can improve. Charlie is a superb example within the class and he always makes the right choices. Well Done!

Kingfishers. Lewis L: Lewis is recovering from a big operation this week, but you wouldn't know it! He's been so resilient and has refused to allow his recovery to hold him back. In all aspects of his learning, he's had a fantastic attitude! Well done, Lewis!

Owls. Rosie: Her ability to reflect on questions and give thoughtful and insightful answers.

Kestrels. Alfie: Alfie has come back to school with enthusiasm and a positive attitude. He has thrown himself into the new topics for the term and tried hard during all our revision sessions. Keep it up Alfie.

Sparrow Hawks. Willow: Willow has been working very hard over the last few weeks and has come back to school ready for the challenges ahead. In writing she has produced some wonderful work and her presentation has been immaculate. Wel done Willow - keep up this great focus and look forward to the weeks ahead!
