STARS OF THE WEEK:

26th April 2024

Bees. Tallulah: Tallulah is our star of the week this week for lots of reasons! She has been working so hard on our new story – the gingerbread man. She has been impressing us with her beautiful independent writing in phonics. Tallulah is also amazing at being a super independent Bee when it comes to organising herself, whether its knowing which glasses she needs or preparing herself for going outside. We are beyond proud of you Toots!

Butterflies. Fifi R: Fifi has had a brilliant week. She has been joining in during phonics and guided reading. Her concentration and work in focussed sessions this week has been brilliant. Well done, Fifi we are really proud of you this week.

Squirrels. Cara: This week Cara has produced an outstanding piece of writing about the lizard she has created. She worked so hard to link all her ideas and choose just the right words to let the reader know the facts she was sharing. Cara was also brilliant at helping to pollinate our apple trees at Forest School. She was helping the bees with their busy jobs! A great week of showing us your best, Cara! Well done.

Frogs: Harper: For her fantastic writing this week. Harper has innovated her own story based on our class text The Feathered Swamp Lizard. Well done on a great week, keep up the good work!

Mice. Max: Max is our star of the week for his successful piano exam and performance. Well done Max We're all so proud of your talent and achievements.

Hedgehogs. Shayla: Shayla has settled in really well after being off last week. She performed our talk for writing actions in front of the whole class with lots of confidence. She is always ready for learning and doing the right thing! Well, done Shayla.

Moles. Beth: Beth has been a super star all week! I have been so impressed with her determination in Maths and how resilient she has been when dealing with some tricky fractions. Her attitude towards learning has been amazing. Well done, Beth!

Rabbits. Vemaan: Vemaan has had a super week! He is always ready for learning, makes the right choices throughout the day and works hard in every lesson. You are a superb role model in the class. Keep it up Vemaan!

"Together, we will make a difference."

Badgers. Millie: Millie has really impressed me with her awesome attitude to learning. We've had some table reshuffles in Badgers and Millie is proving to be a great table partner for the whole group. She scored her highest score on TTRS soundcheck this week, and her poetry in English had some brilliant vocabulary choices in it too. Keep it up Millie!

Foxes. Max: Max has written some amazing poetry writing this week about dragons! Max included everything we wanted him to include. He reflects on his work and improves it each lesson. Fantastic handwriting too Max! 😊

Kingfishers Ellie: Ellie has worked so hard this week to improve the quality and presentation of her writing. She's demonstrated her understanding of speech punctuation and applied it in context. Well done, Ellie!

Owls. James Bell: For an incredible improvement in his handwriting.

Kestrels. Lacey: Lacey has been working extremely hard in everything she has done this week but especially in the additional sessions she has had in the afternoons. She has persevered and shown resilience with questions that are quite tricky and doing all this with a positive attitude! Great.

Sparrow Hawks. Alana: Alana has been smashing everything at the moment. It is clear she is working hard at home and in the extra reading sessions she has been a superstar and her inference skills have really shone. Well done Alana, everything is Year 6 is really coming together for you!
